Before I could answer my phone, it stopped ringing. I was riding along a busy road and by the time I was able to stop safely, I'd missed the call. I didn't recognise the number and when I rang back it was engaged, so I wondered who'd called me. Had something happened at home? Was my school trying to contact me, and if so, why? Worried, I got back on my bike. As soon as I was moving, my phone rang again and I answered just in time. A friendly voice told me I'd won a prize in a writing competition I'd entered a month earlier. I was delighted!
